empire of magic is a dramatic restaging of the role romance played in the culture of a period and world in ways that suggest how cultural fantasy still functions for us today the forgotten story of central asia s enlightenment its rise fall and enduring legacy in this sweeping and richly illustrated history s frederick starr tells the fascinating but largely unknown story of central asia s medieval enlightenment through the eventful lives and astonishing accomplishments of its greatest minds remarkable figures who built a bridge to the modern world because nearly all of these figures wrote in arabic they were long assumed to have been arabs in fact they were from central asia drawn from the persianate and turkic peoples of a region that today extends from kazakhstan southward through afghanistan and from the easternmost province of iran through xinjiang china lost enlightenment recounts how between the years 800 and 1200 central asia led the world in trade and economic development the size and sophistication of its cities the refinement of its arts and above all in the advancement of knowledge in many fields central asians achieved signal breakthroughs in astronomy mathematics geology medicine chemistry music social science philosophy and theology among other subjects they gave algebra its name calculated the earth s diameter with unprecedented precision wrote the books that later defined european medicine and penned some of the world s greatest poetry one scholar working in afghanistan even predicted the existence of north and south america five centuries before columbus rarely in history has a more impressive group of polymaths appeared at one place and time no wonder that their writings influenced european culture from the time of st thomas aquinas down to the scientific revolution and had a similarly deep impact in india and much of asia lost enlightenment chronicles this forgotten age of achievement seeks to explain its rise and explores the competing theories about the cause of its eventual demise informed by the latest scholarship yet written in a lively and accessible style this is a book that will surprise general readers and specialists alike winner of the akutagawa prize the hole is by turns reminiscent of lewis carroll david lynch and my neighbor totoo but is singularly unsettling asa s husband is transferring jobs and his new office is located near his family s home in the countryside during an exceptionally hot summer the young married couple move in and asa does her best to quickly adjust to their new rural lives to their remoteness to the constant presence of her in laws and the incessant buzz of cicadas while her husband is consumed with his job asa is left to explore her surroundings on her own she makes trips to the supermarket halfheartedly looks for work and tries to find interesting ways of killing time one day while running an errand for her mother in law she comes across a strange creature follows it to the embankment of a river and ends up falling into a hole a hole that seems to have been made specifically for her this is the first in a series of bizarre experiences that drive asa deeper into the mysteries of this rural landscape filled with eccentric characters and unidentifiable creatures leading her to question her role in this world and eventually her sanity julian robertson is one of the most successful and well known hedge fund managers of our time for nearly twenty years his infamous fund tiger management was the talk of the town routinely delivering double digit performance this biography will explore this legendary fund manager s role in the development and popularity of hedge funds examine his investment methodology and strategy and look at the growth of his fund and his tigers individuals who have gone on to great success themselves includes candid interviews of robertson his colleagues and his peers uncovers the trading strategies and investment style of a legendary fund manager offers a rare glimpse inside the personal world of julian robertson readership those with any interest in or knowledge of hedge funds business readers investment professionals daniel a strachman is managing director of answers company a new york based money management firm that offers investment management services to individuals and institutions he has contributed many articles on investment management and strategies to publications including the new york post and the
