Inside Red China 2019-08-27 it is refreshing to read an essay on political ideas distinguished both by precision of thought and clarity of expression philosophical review

Deification in the Latin Patristic Tradition 2019 in the 40s bce during his forced retirement from politics under caesar s dictatorship cicero turned to philosophy producing a massive and important body of work as he was acutely aware this was an unusual undertaking for a roman statesman because romans were often hostile to philosophy perceiving it as foreign and incompatible with fulfilling one s duty as a citizen how then are we to understand cicero s decision to pursue philosophy in the context of the political intellectual and cultural life of the late roman republic in a written republic yelena baraz takes up this question and makes the case that philosophy for cicero was not a retreat from politics but a continuation of politics by other means an alternative way of living a political life and serving the state under newly restricted conditions baraz examines the rhetorical battle that cicero stages in his philosophical prefaces a battle between the forces that would oppose or support his project he presents his philosophy as intimately connected to the new political circumstances and his exclusion from politics his goal to benefit the state by providing new moral resources for the roman elite was traditional even if his method of translating greek philosophical knowledge into latin and combining greek sources with roman heritage was unorthodox a written republic provides a new perspective on cicero s conception of his philosophical project while also adding to the broader picture of late roman political intellectual and cultural life

Power Hydraulics 1989 for radicals in europe and north america the anti imperialist and chinese revolutions continued the great task of 1789 1848 and 1870 the bourgeois revolution in marx s terms and the creation of nations that would release the energies and unity of purpose to create new worlds of prosperity and freedom the nationalist focus led to an emphasis on autarkic development the nation it was said already possessed within its own boundaries all the requirements and resources to match the accomplishments of global civilization the overthrow of empire in the 1950s and 1960s of which the coming to power of the chinese communist party in 1949 was a important part seemed to augur a new era in world history one in which the majority of the world s population secured liberation there was perhaps a sense in which this was true but the reality for the majority was far removed from this giddy hope and in the case of the ordinary chinese the newly liberated regime proved far more brutal and exacting than those that it had replaced which also attained high standards of brutality and injustice in china the great famine of 1958 62 was only the most spectacularly cruel and gratuitous product of that new order for the former inhabitants of the old empires national liberation turned out to be not liberation of all but the creation of a new national ruling class as often as not exploiting its position at home to make fortunes then smuggled abroad
